

Digital Communication and your child

What is Digital Communication?

- ▶ Digital communication includes
 - Mobile phones, computers, tablets and any other devices with access to the internet on which you can;
 - Text
 - Send photos
 - Watch videos
 - Send emails or instant messages
 - Join a social networking site
 - Blog
 - Play online games
 - Enter chat rooms

The Pros and Cons of Digital Communication

Pros

- ▶ Allows children to keep in touch
- ▶ Allows them to interact with the wider world
- ▶ Spark interests such as creative writing, photography etc.

Cons

- ▶ Distraction from non-digital world!
 - ▶ Open for cyberbullying
 - ▶ Access to inappropriate materials
 - ▶ Privacy (personal information)
-

Facebook

- ▶ Legal age 13+
- ▶ Closed network- but by default certain items are public
- ▶ Must change privacy settings to private
- ▶ Access to anything their facebook friend puts up on their feed

Facebook Messenger

- ▶ Legal age 13+
- ▶ Must have facebook page
- ▶ Facebook friends can message privately
- ▶ Can create group chats

Instagram

- ▶ Owned by facebook
- ▶ Legal age 13+
- ▶ Open network- but can change to private.
- ▶ Access to any public account
- ▶ Homepage suggests accounts of interest i.e. Celebrities, fashion, gaming etc.

Whats App

- ▶ Legal age 13+
- ▶ Closed network
- ▶ Chat with people on contact list with app
- ▶ Group chats

Snapchat

- ▶ Legal age 13+
- ▶ Share personal photos, videos, messages etc.
- ▶ Media disappears, but you can take screenshots
- ▶ Anyone can contact you, but you must accept them
- ▶ Can follow brands, celebrities etc.
- ▶ Cyberbullying incidents

YouTube

- ▶ Legal age 13+ (unless with parental consent on google Family Link)
- ▶ Can restrict YouTube on your browser through settings
- ▶ Restricted videos show warning screen (18+only)
- ▶ Filters not 100% accurate
- ▶ Can suggest possible videos of interest and then auto-play them

Some suggestions

- ▶ Inform yourself about the apps your children are using
- ▶ Monitor your children's media usage- set clear rules and boundaries
- ▶ Communication- a two way street!

Further reading

▶ www.webwise.ie

(Irish internet safety awareness website)

▶ www.internetsafety.ie

(a guide to internet safety for parents)

▶ www.ispcc.ie

(safety tips and advice for parents about their children)

